

Impact of COVID-19 Across Our Organization

A Three-Part Series

“It was a beautiful moment amidst the hardship when so many people came together and worked in ways they never imagined, in ways that we never had before...”

Part Two

COVID Comes to Our Community On the Frontlines

From the minute the first COVID patient arrived at Summa Health, our healthcare heroes – physicians, nurses, therapists, technicians, transporters, environmental services staff and more – have worked as a team to provide the best treatments and most compassionate care possible. We are incredibly humbled by the resilience they have shown during this pandemic, and are equally grateful for the amount of support that we have received from our community.

Learn more about the everyday heroism of our essential workers, the care given to our caregivers, the need to address health disparities, and the generous spirit of our community throughout this time of uncertainty.
